

I am a subscriber to satellite radio and would like to receive local news and weather. I do not even listen to a regular radio station. FM are the only ones that are clear enough to understand and local weather and news is not their priority. The local news radio is AM and not understandable. I live approx 60 miles from a metro area. I need satellite news and weather. Thank you.
Margaret Hamilton